MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director-Comptroller

Colonel White:

When I informed Hugh Cunningham of the recommendation to the Director on the National Interdepartmental Seminar he reacted strongly. He noted that since the Seminar was established by Executive Order it did not appear wise or possible for the Agency to take unilateral action to withdraw. He urged that if a negative action is to be taken it should be to argue against the Seminar per se. He also noted his belief that (as you stated at the Deputies' Meeting) Agency participants especially in recent times have been favorably impressed with the course itself. He also views it as an opportunity for the Agency through its participation to work against misunderstanding of the Agency and its role and activities. Finally he said that at the outset of the task force review Mr. Macomber had posed the question as to any interest in rescinding the NSAM which stands behind the course and that there were no Department or Agency representatives who spoke in favor of such action. Hugh for himself felt that the Agency was firmly committed given the pressure from your level on components to meet quotas and the favorable critiques he had read from Agency participants.

I believe it would be desirable to have Hugh in to talk about this matter before you go to the Director. Hugh is resurrecting some of the earlier documentation against the possibility that you will wish to do so.
